

PETRA LINECKER TRIO

Line Up:

Petra Linecker	voc
Martin Gasselsberger	keys, backing voc
Willy Hackl	drums

The “Petra Linecker Trio” offers a cross-section of selected, stylistically correctly arranged popular jazz standards (Route 66, My baby just cares for me, When I Fall In Love, ...) to touching ballads (Body And Soul, Georgia, Don’t Know Why (N. Jones)...) then well known groovin’ songs like “Dock of the Bay, Just the two of us, I feel good or I can see clearly now” ...

Exactly the wide spectrum, which demands of the musicians enormous flexibility, marks this trio and offers the listener a nice, varied concert program. The developed arrangements, all from the hand of band members, leave enough room for hard-hitting improvisations and spontaneous musical developments. Petra Linecker, with her powerful soul voice, gives this trio a special note and leads her fellow band members capably through the terrain between jazz and funk. Join it! ...

“A voice that, once let loose, without beating around the bush yet with utmost care tends to penetrate and suddenly one’s whole body hears,– and vibrates long, long thereafter. And I like this encounter.

Now that I know of her, I don’t want to miss her.”

Andy Baum, Austrian Singer/Songwriter.
